

JEROME E. COUTURE

vs.

THERESA Q. COUTURE

DIVORCE JUDGMENT

028223

Notice of the pendency of the complaint in this cause of divorce has been duly and seasonably given according to law. This cause was heard before me and the allegations and the evidence were fully presented and considered. A divorce from the bonds of matrimony is hereby ordered and adjudged to THERESA Q. COUTURE from JEROME E. COUTURE on her Counterclaim on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.

And further ordered and adjudged, that the care and custody of their said child, Terry Jerome Couture, be given to the said Theresa Q. Couture with right of visitation to the said Jerome E. Couture to visit with and to be visited by said children at all reasonable and proper times.

It is further ordered and decreed that the said Jerome E. Couture pay to the said Theresa Q. Couture the sum of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars per week toward the support of said child payable weekly, the first payment to be made June 24, 1978; and Twenty Five ($25.00) Dollars per week as alimony, payable weekly, first payment to be June 24, 1978.

It is further ordered and decreed that the Plaintiff pay to the Defendant all necessary medical, hospital, optical and dental expenses contracted for or paid for by the Defendant which medical, hospital, optical and dental expenses are incurred by the Defendant for the minor child.

It is further ordered and decreed that the said Jerome E. Couture shall be responsible for the following outstanding bills: Boothby & Bartlett Company, house insurance; real estate taxes, if any; Waterville Sewerage District; Dr. Fellerin, dental bill; Bill's Oil Service, oil bill; and the outstanding mortgage payments up to the date of this divorce on the homestead property.

It is further ordered and decreed that the real property of the parties described in the deed from Raoul H. Violette (Bk. 953, Pg. 172) to Jerome E. Couture and Theresa Q. Couture dated 12/31/53 be set apart to Theresa Q. Couture, subject to the mortgage thereon which she shall assume.

It is further ordered and decreed that the household goods and personal property contained in the homestead premises shall be set apart to Theresa Q. Couture as marital property.

It is further ordered and decreed that the said Jerome E. Couture pay to Morton A. Brody attorney for said Theresa Q. Couture the sum of Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars as counsel fees, execution to issue therefor forthwith.
